

Outcomes of Democracy

Democracy is a better form of govt.

because

- * it promotes equality among citizens
 - * it enhances the dignity of the individuals
 - * it resolves conflicts
 - * it improves the social conditions
 - * it provides equal political rights
 - * it allows correction of mistakes
 - * it provides rights to the people
-  Transparency - Democracy allows the right to examine the process of decision-making which is called transparency. RTI empowered this practice
-  Name the country in which Dictatorship is preferred over democracy → PAKISTAN

Assessment of Democracy's Outcomes

POLITICAL OUTCOMES - It produces an accountable, ~~responsive~~ responsive & legitimate govt.

Accountable govt. - Democracy is People's own govt. because people choose their own rulers;

- There is transparency
- Fair & free elections are conducted after a certain time period
- Very effective govt.

- Causes delays to take more acceptable decisions through deliberations & negotiations

Responsive govt. : fulfill needs & expectations of people ; form public opinion & cater about it ; attentive to the needs of people ; sensitive to the people's requirements

Legitimate govt. : govt. of people ; people participate in decision-making ; it generates its own support to itself & provide lawful authority to govt.
- most suitable & Rule of law

Economic Outcomes : ① Rate of economic growth in democracies is slow & gradual ② have welfare scheme to have socio-economic equality
③ Democracies ensure just distribution of goods, incomes & opportunities
④ Low economic growth in democracies as compare to non-democratic countries

Social Outcomes : ① Democracies accommodate various social divisions ; it develops a procedure to conduct competition which reduces the possibility of tensions becoming explosive or violent.

- ② It promotes dignity & freedom of the individuals
- ③ The passion for respect & freedom of citizens is basis of democracy
- ④ It even strengthens the disadvantaged for equal status & opportunity

Democracy is the only form of govt. which revolves round people & accommodate everyone. Democracy's exam never gets over because it is always striving towards a better goal & people constantly demand more benefits in a democracy because it is responsive govt. Despite of economic field, democracy is performing its role very positively.
